17 Plaintiff, Stagecoach Vineyards Limited Partnership ("Plaintiff"), for its complaint
 18 against Defendants, Delicato Vineyards d/b/a Clay Station Vineyards ("Delicato") and Trader

 24 common law trademark and service mark infringement, as the result of willful and 25

1 unauthorized use by Defendants of colorable imitations of Plaintiff's trademarks and 2 service mark, as more fully set forth hereinafter. Plaintiff seeks preliminary and 3 permanent injunctive relief restraining Defendants' infringement of Plaintiff's marks,
4 monetary damages, attorneys' fees and related relief.

- 6 2. Plaintiff, Stagecoach Vineyards Limited Partnership, is a California limited partnership
7 with its principal place of business located at 3265 Soda Canyon Road, Napa, CA

11 located at 12001 South Highway 99, Manteca, CA 95336.

4 ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CLAIMS

- 5 8. Plaintiff is the owner of U.S. Trademark Registration No. 2,608,639 for the trademark
6 STAGECOACH VINEYARDS for wine. The registration has an effective date of May 7 1, 2000. Such registration is valid and subsisting and owned by Plaintiff and is now

9 registration, Plaintiff's STAGECOACH VINEYARDS mark is also presumed to be 10 distinctive.
- 11 9. Plaintiff is the owner of U.S. Trademark Registration No. 2,217,901 for the service
12 mark STAGECOACH VINEYARD for vineyard services, namely, cultivation of 13 grapes to the order and specification of others. The registration has an effective date of 14 June 20, 1997. Such registration is valid and subsisting and owned by Plaintiff and is 15 now contestable in accordance with 15 U.S.C. §§1065 and 1115(b). Pursuant to such 16 registration, Plaintiff's STAGECOACH VINEYARD mark is also presumed to be 17 distinctive.
- 18 10. Plaintiff is the owner of U.S. Trademark Registration No. 2,646,769 for the trademark
19 STAGECOACH HEIGHTS for fresh wine grapes. The registration has an effective 20 date of October 10, 2000. Such registration is valid and subsisting and owned by 21 Plaintiff and is now contestable in accordance with 15 U.S.C. §§1065 and 1115(b).
22 Pursuant to such registration, Plaintiff's STAGECOACH HEIGHTS mark is also 23 presumed to be distinctive.
- 24 11. Plaintiff is the owner of U.S. Trademark Registration No. 2,552,166 for the trademark
25 STAGECOACH TRAIL for fresh wine grapes. The registration has an effective date
26

1 of October 6, 2000. Such registration is valid and subsisting and owned by Plaintiff
2 and is now incontestable in accordance with 15 U.S.C. §§1065 and 1115(b). Pursuant
3 to such registration, Plaintiff's STAGECOACH TRAIL mark is also presumed to be 4 distinctive.

5 12. Plaintiff is the owner of U.S. Trademark Registration No. 2,537,958 for the trademark
6 STAGECOACH SPOKE for fresh wine grapes. The registration has an effective date of 7 October 6, 2000. Such registration is valid and subsisting and owned by Plaintiff and is 8 now incontestable in accordance with 15 U.S.C. §§1065 and 1115(b). Pursuant to such 9 registration, Plaintiff's STAGECOACH SPOKE mark is also presumed to be 10 distinctive.
11

12 13. In 1995, the Stagecoach Vineyards vineyard property was first planted. In 1996, 13 Stagecoach Vineyards Limited Partnership was formed and a sign identifying the 14 vineyards to the public as STAGECOACH VINEYARDS was also erected.
15 Stagecoach Vineyards entered its first agreement for the cultivation of grapes to the 16 order and specification of others under the STAGECOACH VINEYARDS mark in 17 1996, and began providing such services immediately thereafter. In 1997, Stagecoach
18 Vineyards first licensed the use of the mark STAGECOACH VINEYARDS on wine
19 made from STAGECOACH VINEYARDS grapes. In 1997, Stagecoach Vineyards
20 also first harvested and delivered STAGECOACH VINEYARDS wine grapes to 21 customers for use in the production of wine. In February 1999, the STAGECOACH
22 VINEYARDS mark was first featured in association with wine at a barrel auction for 23 charity. Plaintiff's various "STAGECOACH" formative marks and trade names as 24 referenced in paragraphs 8 – 13 of the Complaint are collectively referred to as the 25 STAGECOACH Marks.
26
27

1 14. In November of 2000, the Wine Spectator featured Stagecoach Vineyards in a five-page
2 article entitled "Napa's New Frontier: Winemakers are clamoring for grapes from the 3 lofty Stagecoach Vineyards," discussing Plaintiff's vineyards, the high quality of the 4 grapes being produced there and the demand for such grapes among well-known 5 wineries.

6 15. Today, Stagecoach Vineyards consists of over 500 acres of grapes of numerous
7 varieties including Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Cabernet Franc, Syrah, Petit Verdot,
8 Malbec, Zinfandel, Sangiovese, Chardonnay and Marsanne and the property is valued
9 at over $100 million. Plaintiff sells its STAGECOACH VINEYARDS grapes to over 10 fifty different wineries and STAGECOACH VINEYARDS grapes are recognized in the 11 industry for their high quality.

12 16. As part of the sale of STAGECOACH VINEYARDS grapes, Plaintiff licenses the use 13 of the STAGECOACH VINEYARDS mark for wine produced 95% or more from 14 STAGECOACH VINEYARDS grapes. The STAGECOACH VINEYARDS mark
15 appears on such wine in the manner of a vineyard designation in association with the 16 house mark of the winery producing the wine from the STAGECOACH VINEYARDS
17 grapes.

18 17. Over the years, over 50 different wines carrying Plaintiff's STAGECOACH
19 VINEYARDS mark have been favorably reviewed in the Wine Spectator, as well as 20 numerous other publications, and the STAGECOACH VINEYARDS mark has 21 appeared on over twenty different brands of wine made using STAGECOACH
22 VINEYARDS grapes. As a result of the use of the STAGECOACH VINEYARDS 23 mark on wine and the favorable reception of such wine by consumers, the 24 STAGECOACH VINEYARDS mark is an extremely valuable mark to both Plaintiff
25 and its licensees.

18. Plaintiff owns extremely valuable goodwill which is symbolized by its STAGECOACH
 1 Marks and each use of these marks substantially increases the value of Plaintiff's
 2 company and the salability of the goods and services sold through Plaintiff's company,
 3 as well as the value of the wine brands using the STAGECOACH VINEYARDS mark.

4
 5 19. Defendant, Delicato Vineyards, does business as Clay Station Vineyards. Delicato
 6 produces wine under the brand name CLAY STATION and prominently features the 7 image of a stagecoach on its front label in the manner of a trademark. An image of the 8 label featuring the stagecoach design is set forth below:

10
 11 20. The stagecoach design mark is featured a total of seven times on the bottle for the 12 CLAY STATION wine, including on the back label, the sides and top of the wine
 13 capsule and on both sides of the cork. The stagecoach design mark is also prominently
 14 featured in Delicato's advertising for the CLAY STATION wine.

15
 16 21. Upon information and belief, Delicato adopted the stagecoach design mark after 17 Plaintiff's adoption of its STAGECOACH Marks and after the effective dates for 18 Plaintiff's registrations for its STAGECOACH Marks.

19
 20 22. Defendant, Trade Joe's, is a retail grocery store chain that sells wine throughout 21 California, including in this judicial district. Trader Joe's sells a variety of wines at 22

1 different price points including, upon information and belief, premium wines that have
2 been made available to Trader Joe's at discounted prices. Upon information and belief,
3 Trader Joe's passes along these cost savings in these discounted premium wines to its 4 customers by selling such wines at markedly reduced prices that would not otherwise
5 be available to consumers.

6 23. Trader Joe's has sold and, upon information and belief, continues to sell Delicato's
7 CLAY STATION wine featuring the stagecoach design mark in its stores located in this 8 judicial district.

9 24. Delicato's stagecoach design trademark is confusingly similar to Plaintiff's
10 STAGECOACH Marks, given that the parties' marks are virtually identical in meaning
11 as picture/word equivalents, and that the goods offered by Delicato under its stagecoach
12 design mark, namely, wine, are identical and highly related to the goods and services
13 which Plaintiff and its licensees offers under the STAGECOACH Marks, namely, wine, 14 wine grapes and the cultivation of wine grapes to the order and specification of others.

15 25. On August 5, 2009, Plaintiff sent Delicato a demand letter advising Delicato of 16 Plaintiff's rights in the STAGECOACH Marks and Plaintiff requested that Delicato not 17 use the confusingly similar stagecoach design mark for wine. After requesting and 18 being granted additional time to respond to Plaintiff's demands, Delicato responded on 19 September 18, 2009 by indicating that it intended to continue its use of the stagecoach
20 design mark on its wine.

21 26. Use of the stagecoach design mark on wine sold by Defendants is likely to confuse
22 consumers into believing that Delicato's CLAY STATION wine is made from 23 STAGECOACH VINEYARDS grapes, or is affiliated with, associated with, connected
24 to, or sponsored by Plaintiff or Plaintiff's well-known STAGECOACH VINEYARDS
25 wine grapes and licensed wine.

- 1 27. Plaintiff will be harmed by such confusion as Delicato's CLAY STATION wine brand
2 will unjustly benefit, and sales of the brand will unjustly increase from the false
3 association with Plaintiff, at no cost to Defendants. This will harm Plaintiff by 4 endangering the ability of Plaintiff's STAGECOACH Marks to serve as unique and 5 distinctive source indicators for Plaintiff's and its licensee's goods and services.
6
7 28. Unless restrained by this Court, Defendants will proceed to unfairly compete with 8 Plaintiff by using the stagecoach design mark, wherefore Plaintiff is without adequate 9 remedy at law.
10
11 29. Defendants' continued infringing use of the confusingly similar stagecoach design
12 mark will financially harm Plaintiff by diminishing the value of Plaintiff's mark as a 13 source indicator for Plaintiff's and its licensee's goods and services, and Defendants' 14 infringing use of the stagecoach design mark will increase the sales and profitability of 15 Defendants' CLAY STATION brand wine to the detriment of Plaintiff.
16
17 30. This case is an exceptional case entitling Plaintiff to treble damages and attorneys' fees.
18

26 connection with which such use is likely to cause consumer confusion, deception or
